

Ann Elizabeth Samperi

April 24, 1937 - August 25, 2022

Ann Elizabeth (Sedita) Samperi, loving wife, mother, sister and grandmother, passed away on Thursday, August 25, 2022. A native Houstonian, Ann was born to Louis J. and Mary Antoinette (Costa) Sedita on April 24, 1937. Ann was raised in the Roman Catholic faith, attending Catholic schools from primary through high school, graduating from Incarnate Word Academy in 1956. On September 2, 1957, she married the love of her life, Ciro Martin Samperi, and they shared 64 happy years together.

Ann began her career in the office with Cravens Dargen, and left years later to begin her vocation of raising her family. She returned to the workforce when her children were in junior high school, working first as a typesetter at Kwik Copy, and later in Accounts Receivable for Teledyne Mecca where she worked until retirement.

Ann enjoyed cooking wonderful meals for family and friends, bowling, crocheting, playing cards, trying her hand at different crafts, and was known to pull out the accordion upon request and play some songs. She was team mom for her daughter's and son's sports teams, Brownie Scout helper, and Cub Scout mom.

Ann served in the Funeral Ministry of St. Francis de Sales, and was also a Committed Adorer for Eucharistic Adoration along with her husband, Ciro. She was a Breast Cancer survivor for several years prior to her death.

Ann is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Stephen and Marsha Samperi; daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Jim O'Neill; grandson Joseph O'Neill and wife Sophie; grandson Christopher O'Neill; brother Joe Sedita and wife Natalie; brother Monsignor Vincent Sedita; sister Rosalie Sedita, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Thursday, September 1st at 10:00 a.m. at St. Francis De Sales Catholic Church, 8200 Roos Rd., Houston, Texas 77036, with celebrant Father Wayne Wilkerson and concelebrant Msgr. Vincent A. Sedita. Rite of Committal will follow at 12:00 pm at Forest Park Westheimer Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in memory of Ann Samperi to St. Francis De Sales Catholic Church www.sfds-houston.org or to Incarnate Word Academy Annual Fund in care of Ann Samperi at 609 Crawford; Houston, TX 77002.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m., on Thursday, September 1, 2022 at St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church, 8200 Roos Street in Houston, Texas.

Ann will be laid to rest at Forest Park Westheimer Cemetery in Houston, Texas.

Tribute Wall

TS

“ Ann was not only my cousin but she was my confirmation Godmother. I even took her name as my confirmation name. I know that this past year was hard for her as she was without the love of her life Ciro. She will be missed by so many. But at least she and Ciro are together again. Gid Bless you my sweet cousin Therese Samperi

Therese Samperi - August 30, 2022 at 06:13 PM

KK

“ Aunt Ann, we have a lifetime of memories to cherish; from the many nights of you and Uncle Ciro playing Canasta with my parents when I was just a baby wanting to get out of my crib to join in the laughter at the table to the many special occasions we've shared over the past 63 years! I love you and will miss you. Rest In Peace until we are together again playing cards in heaven. Love Karen

Karen Kurt - August 30, 2022 at 11:50 AM

MS

“ Myrna Samperi-Sanders lit a candle My sweet Aunt Ann, I will miss you so much! I will miss talking to you every week or 2 (sometimes 3) - I don't know who will update me on family news now. You taught me so much throughout my life and have always been there for me. You have always been the perfect example of what a daughter, sister, wife, mother and aunt should be like and I'm so thankful God chose you to be my aunt. I'm so thankful that you didn't have to suffer a long time but are home now with Uncle Ciro and all our loved ones who went before. I will hold you close in my heart until we meet again. Thank you for everything.

Myrna Samperi-Sanders - August 30, 2022 at 12:00 AM