

David Leon Cleboski

March 16, 1945 - April 24, 2016

David Leon Cleboski, born March 16, 1945, in Houston, Tx, passed away at his home in Spring, Tx, on Sunday April 24, 2016, after a long battle with Primary Lateral Sclerosis. Preceded in death by his father, Frank John Cleboski, and mother, Vashti Spruill Cleboski, and survived by his wife, Verlin, daughters Lara and Kim, sons Keenon and David, and 3 grandchildren.

A graduate of St Thomas University, David was an avid outdoorsman who loved hunting and fishing, a fierce patriot who served as a Marine in the Reserves, and an individual with such an enormous personality that he never met a man or woman who didn't like him. It was this charisma that brought him success. As his wife said "Dave could make friends with the devil, turn him around and sell him something!" His dynamic smile, his quick wit and loving nature will be sorely missed by his family and friends.

The family kindly requests donations be made to the PLS foundation at <http://sp-foundation.org/get-involved/donate.html>
