

Enrique Gluzman

September 9, 1936 - November 20, 2018

Enrique Gluzman, born on September 9, 1936 in Buenos Aires, Argentina, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, November 20, 2018, in The Woodlands, Texas. Enrique was preceded in death by his father, Abraham Gluzman; his mother, Juana Gluzman; and his sister, Mindel Suby.

Enrique is survived by his wife, Rosalinda Partida Gluzman; his son, Pablo Gluzman and his wife, Angela and their children, Bailey, Cristian, Logan and Hunter; daughter, Liliana Trevino and her husband, David and their children, David and Maya; and daughter, Vanessa Jimenez and her husband, Manuel and their children, Serena, Nathan, Ethan, Sofia, and Julissa; his niece, Elsa Machanbanski and family; and nephew, Salvador Suby and family.

"Quique" loved spending time with his grandchildren and working on word searches and jigsaw puzzles. He was known for his humor and generosity. He will be missed by all.

A memorial service for Enrique Gluzman will be held at 3:00 p.m., Saturday, December 1, 2018 at Joseph J. Earthman Generations, 234 Westcott Street in Houston, Texas.

Donations may be made in his memory to the Houston Area Parkinson's Society through the following link: <https://app.mobilecause.com/form/6Y5itg>.