“Faye was such a fun and caring person She and I have been neighbors for 40 years and had many wonderful conversations I was in charge of her homestead when she traveled and was away for anything else. We laughed, cried, and just enjoyed knowing each other. I saw those handsome boys grow up and become so good to their mother. I could go on and on, but for now Stay strong and May the Lord comfort you in this time of your loss. I will miss her greatly. Love Bootsie.
