

James Gordon Spencer

September 26, 1939 - January 7, 2018

J. Gordon Spencer was born, September 26, 1939 in Baytown Texas, to Florretta and Jack Spencer and peacefully passed away on Sunday, January 7, 2018 in Houston, Texas. He was 78 years.

Gordon is survived by his wife of 40 years, Janet Russell Spencer, his son and wife, Craig & Stephanie Spencer of Colorado, his daughter, Stephanie Lawson of Texas; grandchildren Christina & husband Danny Lanskey of Colorado, Brandon Spencer of Colorado and Raven Davidson of Texas. Wife Janet's family; mother, Anna Russell, sister Karen & husband Terry Davis, sister Linda & husband Richard Loper, nephew Dustin Davis, niece Lindsay and husband Robert Clendenen, niece Morgan Davis & great niece Mackenzy Jones, all of Texas. Gordon was extremely loved and admired by his family! All very close to him, surrounding him on Christmas Eve, each visiting with him prior to his final decline. He will forever live on in each of us!

Gordon was a devoted husband, father and friend to many. Often described as gracious, honorable and the ultimate gentleman! Gordon was a practicing Architect for 55 years, a member of the AIA, TSA & RIBA, having done numerous projects in the U.S. and around the world. Gordon was a passionate reader, enjoyed tennis, golf, traveling and any time with friends & family.

A Memorial Service and Celebration of Gordon's life will be held at a date to be announced in the future.

The family wishes to acknowledge all of the love and support received during Gordon's illness and at this time of our great loss. We are forever grateful!

Donations in his memory are suggested to MD Anderson and the AIA Houston Chapter.
