

Jorge & Inela Carcamo

January 9, 2026

Jorge Raul Cárcamo Bravo de Rueda was born in Lima, Perú, on March 18, 1938. He, his two sisters, and a brother were raised by a very loving, gentle mom and an equally loving, but strict dad. He learned quite early to be independent and truly enjoyed his solo vacation time at their ranch. His great intelligence and studiousness were traits that allowed him to succeed throughout his whole life. As an engineer, he was fascinated by the wealth of natural resources in Perú and strove to attract foreign investors to develop them. His mind could understand any industry, and his charismatic personality led him to high positions in ministries and boards of directors. A very good-hearted man, he fell in love with a girl from his home neighborhood, to whom, at the age of 12, he had refused to lend his bike.

Inela Zegarra Rivera was born in Lima, Perú, on January 12, 1940. She and her two younger brothers were raised by truly loving parents. As a smart and fun city girl, she and her school friends shared their life's journeys, remaining close, lifelong friends. Her youth was filled with laughter, dancing, vacationing at the beach house, and strong family ties. These molded her into a self-determined, young woman able to achieve whatever she wanted. Her heart was not hardened by the trials she faced as a young woman, and her emotional intelligence equipped her to love, no matter what.

Their paths once again converged; Jorge and Inela married in the Catholic Church. They had three daughters to whom they truly gave their best. Inela joyfully dedicated her life to her family. Jorge provided for the family and sent his children to the best schools and universities. They were a happy couple who filled their home with love and laughter. It was their upbringing, with strong family ties, that formed the values that they each brought into the marriage. Their shared high expectations guided them in forming our beautiful family.

Following the example of their own parents, they too provided loving and attentive care for their sick parents until their last breath. Carmelita, Inela's mom, came to live in their home and was cared for there for five years before she naturally passed.

Their daughter, Mariella, and Cesar Augusto gave them the joy of three grandchildren, Augusto, Valeria, and Daniella, whom they loved dearly, as only grandparents do.

Their Catholic Faith grew stronger through many of life's setbacks. In 2015, they relocated from Peru to Houston, Texas, as US residents. They lived for the next 8 years with Liliana (daughter) and Robert Edwards (son-in-law), and together, they continued their journey with Christ in the Catholic Faith. Their doggies, Philipo and Angie, brought them much joy.

In 2023, they relocated to Miami and lived with Claudia (daughter) and Paul (son-in-law) until Inela was moved to assisted living at Seasons Gardens in Miami. They received the Eucharist every week, to the end of their lives. After 59 years of Holy Marriage and faithful reception of the Sacraments of the Church, they passed away. Inela died on January 7, 2026, with Liliana at her side. Jorge died on January 9, 2026, in Claudia's home.

Inela is also survived by her brother, Jorge Zegarra. Jorge is also survived by his sister Ana Cárcamo.

“ As we drive to The Cathedral of Our Lady of Walsingham for the Funeral Mass of my dad and mom, Jorgito and Nelita, I want to upload their last picture together taken on 12/25/25. I also am uploading the picture of my mom with her dearest friend Maria, who accompanied her in her last years of life all the way to her last hours. Finally, I am uploading the picture we took yesterday at the Visitation. You will see their body remains that we respectfully honor as Our Church teaches. We will pray for their souls in today's Funeral Mass. It's a day to say thank you to Our Almighty God for the lives of Flaquita y Mounstrito, how I always called them. We rejoice and pray that they may be enjoying the Beatific Vision together!

“Dearest Liliana and Tito, we loved Liliana's dear parents so much, and have such precious memories of our many visits with you, and Jorge and Nela. Your home was such a caring and loving place for them both. Your graced generosity insured their loving care which showed in their health and happiness while they lived with you. We treasured their joyful sparkle as they shared their lives stories and adventures with us. We will miss our get-togethers which were so precious when they were with us. COVID restrictions didn't keep us from our many pleasant patio garden celebrations for holidays, birthdays, and any days which were delightfully shared! Returning inside our homes, we remember how they were both, the life of our New Year's and other parties! Listening to their insights on things going on in the world and Church brought thoughtful exchanges of both understanding and prayer. We shared our hearts, prayed, laughed, cried, and loved one another. They are very dear to us. Their joy, hugs, and faith will remain in our hearts and minds. When you texted early on Friday, January 9, that your father had passed, I hurried to Holy Mass to pray for he and your dear mother. It was there that I beheld both of them in beauty and joy in my soul's eyes. They must be in the nearer presence of God. You cared for their souls, bodies and minds. God must be so pleased with you both. Please know that they remain in our prayers forever, as do you, and all your family. We love them and you dearly. Tim, Mary and dear Dorothy “ Today I honor the lives and memory of Jorge and Inela Cárcamo. I was blessed to share a special Christmas Eve with them, a memory I will cherish forever.

Their story leaves me with a deep truth: the love that God unites is not separated, not even by death. They departed just days apart and today rest together in the presence of the Lord.

May they watch over and care for their beloved daughter, Lili, from heaven.

Rest in peace 🙏

“ En memoria de Jorge e Inela, que Dios los tenga en su gloria, Amén 🙏

Giselle - January 21 at 12:58 AM

“ Jorge and Inela were the most loving parents of their three daughters, having given them so much love and all they could during their lives. May God have their souls in His presence and in His Glory.
