

Jose Briceno

March 9, 1945 - February 22, 2023

JOSE “ELVANO” BRICENO, was born in Mérida, Venezuela on March 9, 1945 and passed away peacefully in Houston on February 22, 2023.

Jose Elvano is lovingly remembered by all his children: Jose “Cheo”, Maribel, Yoseline, and Desiree and by his grandchildren, grand grandchildren, brother, sister and many nieces and nephews.

He was an exemplary father and grandfather who leaves us with an indescribable emptiness, but also with great values and teachings such as love for God, an unlimited dedication to his family and a deep love for his loved ones.

His authenticity, perseverance, and resilience in the face of adversity did not go unnoticed and impressed all who shared his environment.

A man full of faith, who professed with humility. He was a devout Catholic and never missed daily prayers including The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Tireless worker with unwavering spiritual strength. Warrior, brave in the face of difficult times and faithful protector of his greatest treasure: the family, especially his children and grandchildren, who always count on his valuable advice and unconditional support.

A strong man who never gave up... because your passing was not a lost battle, for us it was and will continue to be from heaven the continuation of the greatest legacy you leave us: the greatness of your love and your faith in God.

The pleasant memories of the beautiful moments by your side fill us with peace, joy and smiles and help us cope with the pain of your physical departure.

Now you are in a wonderful place, taking care of us. You will remain our guide forever. We love you PAPA/Abuelo ??

Finally, the family would like to thank his amazing group of caregivers in Maracaibo, Venezuela and in Houston for their faithful and loving care of Jose Elvano the last year.

A funeral mass will be celebrated at 3:00 p.m, on Saturday, March 4, 2023 at St. Theresa's Catholic Church, 6622 Haskell Steet in Houston, Texas 77007. The mass will be livestreamed so that all of Jose's family and friends in both North and South America may be part of this beautiful celebration. A Reception will follow in the Fellowship Hall.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the charity of your choice.

“Que Los Angeles del cielo lo lleven al paraíso, allí donde no hay dolor ni sufrimiento, en un lugar donde reina La Paz al lado de nuestro padre celestial y que quienes quedamos en este plano siempre honremos la memoria de nuestros seres queridos. Que en paz descanse.
