

Lynn Durden

August 8, 1954 - January 7, 2018

Lynn H. Durden, born on August 8, 1954 in Houston, TX to Harvey and Adelle Durden, passed away Sunday, January 7, 2018.

Lynn was preceded in death by his father, Harvey Durden; and stepmother, Myrtle Durden.

Lynn is survived by his mother, Adelle Durden, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Lynn was a native Houstonian and long term resident of Shepherd Park Plaza. He graduated from S.P. Waltrip High School in 1973. He enjoyed building and repairing things for himself and others as well as spending time outdoors. He cherished spending time with friends including going to Whataburger for breakfast and other favorite restaurants where he would often meet them. He also enjoyed spending time with his black labs, Duke and Bandit, as well as Bogey his parrot. He was an avid Astros and Texans fan. He loved watching the Astros win the World Series this year.

A visitation will be held from 9 – 10:30 a.m, Thursday, January 18, 2018 at Joseph J. Earthman Generations, 234 Westcott Street. A graveside service will take place immediately following at 11 a.m. at Woodlawn Funeral Home & Cemetery, 1101 Antoine Drive.
