

Philip Thomas Giusti

January 15, 1992 - January 15, 2023

On January 15, 1992, Philip Thomas Giusti, first born of Laura Caravella-Machart and Phil Giusti was born of love in Commack, New York. Shortly thereafter, his brother, Tyler Vincent Giusti arrived. Sports, music and even into adulthood their love of video games came to bond them as best friends. In life even the brightest star that graces the night sky with it's short lived beauty is only able to be seen for a brief period of time.

On January 15, 2023, God granted Philip the gift of eternal life and peace but his eternal glow of beauty and light will always remain.

The family of Phil will be hosting a celebration of his life from 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m., CST, on Saturday, January 21, 2023 at Joseph J. Earthman Generations, 234 Westcott Street in Houston, Texas.

We welcome all to share your stories about Phil.

“ We were so sad to hear of Philip’s passing. We have so many good memories of places we went and things we did that involved Philip over the years. Our deepest heartfelt sympathy goes out to everyone in Philip’s family.

“ I had never seen a cuter baby boy and I was so happy, I was going to be his Aunt. His smile was magical, his brown eyes and blond hair made him irresistible. I love how excited Philip would get when he got a new toy and would grab my hand to show me what he got. As he became a young man our talks focused on what makes us all happy. I remember he would blurt out (MEH) and we would all laugh. He really liked to be happy. He was so enthusiastic when he spoke of his future and proudly shared he was working on his grand plan. Philip was kind, and gentle and always made an effort to make his audience feel comfortable, so he never shared how severe his suffering was. The absence of Philip on Earth is a loss for those who love him. I believe my nephew is at peace now because he is in the presence of Jesus who is comforting him in heaven. Philip one day I will hold your hand again. I love you and miss you, Aunt Gia

“ We were saddened to hear of the sudden passing of Philip. My son, Brandon and Pihilip went through school together and my greatest memories were back in the Cub Scout days, when Laura was their leader. We are so sorry for your loss of sweet Philip. Heaven has definitely gained another angel way too too! Sending our love, prayers and condolences to the entire Guisti family. Love Joanie Siwek

“ We were saddened to hear the news of Phil's passing. He was always smiling. He was a kind and hard working young man. He was a great neighbor.

“ Mary Kearns-Banks lit a candle I had the pleasure of breaking bread with Philip on a few occasions but the best was Easter last year. We celebrated at Laura's and Philip smiled that whole day. He enjoyed fishing with Jamie and after dinner I heard him say how great of day it was and how much he loved being with family. He is a great young man who loved deeply and will be missed. To his family you are all in my prayers and know he loved you all unconditionally as you loved him, unconditionally. He's at peace in heaven and surrounded, still, by family. I love you all.
