“ I had the pleasure of working with Samir at Chevron in Contracts. He always had a smile, always willing to help, and very kind person. So grateful for the time we worked together.

Samir will be dearly missed. Praying for strength, comfort and peace for his entire family during this difficult time.

"Behold, the dwelling of God is with mortals. God will dwell with them, and they shall be God's people, and God will be with them; and will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

Revelation 21:3-4

May God grant eternal rest to Samir, and may light shine perpetual upon him.

“ Q: What will you never forget about Samir?

A: Samir was an angel – who has lived well, laughed often and loved much. He has gained the respect and heart of everyone who knew him. My dear Uncle Samir leaves the world better than he found it.

Samir looked for the best in others and gave the best he had with love.

This is the price you pay for having a great-uncle. You get the wonder, the joy, the tender moments – and you get the tears at the end, too.

Rest in peace, Samir. You will be missed forever and always be remembered.

“ Juliette Listi lit a candle Samir, was a good, gracious and loving Man to so many people in his life. I knew him from Meditation at St. Theresa's Church. He and his wife Martha were always the most loving, caring and spiritual people I know. He has suffered so much during the last few years with cancer. He tried everything he could, but finally our Dear Lord told Samir, you have suffered so much, now you need to come home to Me. May God take care of you Samir and rest peacefully now. Know you have left this earth to a better place. Hope to see you again. Love,
