

Samuel Evatt Yeargain

October 5, 2003 - November 8, 2018

Samuel Evatt Yeargain was born on October 5, 2003 to Susann Evatt and Scott Yeargain. He passed away on November 8, 2018 in Houston, Texas.

Samuel is survived by his parents, Susie Evatt and Scott Yeargain; step-mother, Mary Yeargain; brother, Andrew Yeargain; step-brother, Max Elliott; grandparents, G.T. Evatt, Bob Yeargain, and Patricia Yeargain; great-aunts and uncles, Carl and Martha Schumacher, and Ronnie and Maggie Poff; uncles, Bill Evatt, Steve Evatt, and Dean Fisher; aunts, Kim Evatt, Adine Rotman, and Jennifer Fisher; cousins, Tyler, Allison, Emily, Liam, Jonathan, William, Davis and Justin, and many, many friends.

Samuel was a beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend. Samuel will be remembered for his kind, sweet nature and for his many talents. He loved animals and related to them all from horses to frogs and was able to calm animals just by being with them.

He was endearingly referred to as the “horse whisperer” at the stables. He spent years working with horses and enjoyed both English and Western styles of horseback riding.

He was a fisherman, craftsman and woodworker. His most recent project was a saxaflute that he was making from purple heart. He loved music and could play the piano, alto saxophone, tuba and accordion. He enjoyed art and was talented with both drawing and painting. Samuel was a hard worker and willing to lend a hand.

Samuel is loved by so many and will be missed. Rest in Peace sweet baby bear.

A funeral service for Samuel will be held at 3:00 p.m., Saturday, November 17, 2018 at Covenant Church, 4949 Caroline Street in Houston, Texas.

“ *MAMA Susie Evatt lit a candle Baby Bear...
sweet Baby Bear*

Sanmy, Sam I ... sammy Sammy Sam I ....

I love you Bear, my little baby Bear Our nightly prayer, that we should say together:

*I love you GOD... thank you God for Sammy bear, thank you God for Andy bear, thank you God for Daddy. Thank you God for Mama.
Please forgive me for everything that I did today without your honor-
--please help me walk in your light tomorrow, please help guide every choice and action. I LOVE YOU GOD!*

Baby Bear --- I have complete trust in you and your loving heart. I know whatever occurred was driven by love with a goal of protection.

Bear and I love you --forever, please remember our family rule baby bear--kisses to moon, And number #1 rule--missing is permitted, if we are apart--each of us promised to have a smile, laugh, rejoice and play!!! Baby bear, please play in heaven--- Bear and I promise to embrace every opportunity for joy until we see you again. No sorrow and crying -- we joyfully accept the gifts of happiness that God places out life journey. This has been our family rule since God granted us on my life path. Bear will continue to laugh and play. I will laugh and play .... I hear heaven is pretty awesome--so you must embrace each laugh and play all day, everyday-- until see join you again.

Sammy, thank you for each moment of joy you gave us. Bear and I will carry you with us forever--and share with you the laughter and joy.

*Both of my boys are amazing---Gentlemen, kind, brilliant, loving, gracious and grateful ---luckiest, proudest man to have ever lived.
I love you all the way to my soul.*
