“ Aunt Sandra you will be deeply missed. We all adore and love you so much. I will miss your humor, spirit and wonderful smile. I know you are with Nanny, Popo, your sister and brother-in-law. You told me your heart was broken, and you hadn't been the same since mom passed, so I hope it is full now and you are smiling. Plus, my dad gets to catch up on teasing you. We will be here for our cousins and will continue to look out for each other until we are all together again! XOXO Stacy

“ There are so many memories that I will forever cherish. I will always remember my weekend sleepovers and waking up to a delicious breakfast in bed when I was a child. I will remember our fun grocery store trips to Smiths and always stopping by the quarter machine that gives silly little gifts. I will remember our vacations together with our sweet family members. I will remember our trips to Costco and Sam's. I will remember your calls and text about the weather and you would remind me to be careful when I'm on the road and to pack my umbrella for those rainy days. I will remember our chats about all the Real Housewives franchises. I will always remember you when I'm watching I Love Lucy and Mama's Family. Nannie, you have left me with so many amazing memories. Thank you for being so amazing! I'll love you forever!
