“Mary Teresa was My Great Aunt. She watched my brother and I during the summer for several years. She loved to order us pizza and send us down the road to Oak Cliff doughnuts after noon, to get the discount doughnuts and pan dulce. She always had all of our clothes ironed and perfectly folded. To this day I can't wear anything that isn't ironed. She was a great cook. And she cared for us deeply. We will truly miss her.”
